Description PA Motorsport manufactured hub nuts are in stock to suit Hillman Imp stub axles as used on numerous Historic FF1600 and other Historic racing cars. We have both RH and LH thread nuts in stock and can also supply RH and LH thread stub axles. Our products are made from superior quality materials to the original Imp parts and are a direct replacement for the originals. We can also machine the stub axles for other applications such as Crossle racing cars. Please contact info@pamotorsport.com for more details
